

VJW International
FOREIGN POLICY & DEVELOPMENT

CONSULTANCY OPPORTUNITY

PROFILE REQUESTED

Learning and dissemination of humanitarian practices' expert

PROJECT

"Learning and Dissemination for the pilots under the HERRU programme"

DESCRIPTION

VJW International is looking to recruit a Key Expert in humanitarian assistance to facilitate, extract and disseminate shared learnings from DFID's Humanitarian Emergency Refugee Response Uganda (HERRU) programme (in particular the pilots and other innovative innovations). This is to ensure that findings are built on both by future DFID programmes but also other organisations' activities initially in Uganda but potentially globally if relevant.

PROFILE OF THE EXPERT

Key qualifications (essential criteria):

- University Degree in Development and humanitarian action, Social Science or any other related subject
- At least 5 years' professional experience in humanitarian and development assistance;
- Strong drafting and communication skills;
- Fluency in English.

Additional experience (assets):

- Understanding of and/or past experience working with HERRU and other donor humanitarian initiatives such as the Comprehensive Refugee Response Framework (CRRF) and Refugee and Host Population Empowerment (ReHope) will be a strong asset;
- Experience in development and humanitarian at field level in Uganda;
- Understanding of the humanitarian-development nexus;
- Experience in facilitating multi-stakeholder workshops with donors and humanitarian agencies;
- Experience with communication activities utilising social media.

DATE AND PLACE OF ASSIGNMENT

Project location

- Home-based and Uganda

Duration of the assignment

- The assignment will run from April 2018 to July 2018